Mr. J. A. Hall,

Dear Sir:-

We are endeavoring to balance up a large number of small accounts which are due us and find you owe us $2 for coins sent you Dec. 27th, 1897. We have called your attention to this claim several times and have not been favored with remittance. Will you not please send us the $2 and let us get the account balanced? If you wish a statement of what you took from the package, we can send it to you.

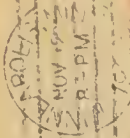

Yours respectfully,

S. H. Chapman
